Response to Amendment

1. This action is responsive to amendment received on April 09, 2004.

Reissue Applications

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 251 as being broadened in a reissue application filed outside the two year statutory period. See MPEP § 706.03(x) and 1412.03. A claim is broader in scope than the original claims if it contains within its scope any conceivable product or process which would have infringed the original patent. A claim is broadened if it is broader in any one respect even though it may be narrower in other respects.

The Patent claim 1 states "means for configuring communication parameters associated with each port position...". The amended claim states "Means within the apparatus for configuring communication parameters, including communication parameters for at least several of said port positions..." . As stated in MPEP § 1412.03, a claim is broadened when it is broadened in at least one aspect, even though it is narrowed in others. Therefore, given that the original claims have been broadened, an Assignee is not permitted to execute a declaration for a reissue in which the intent is to broaden Patent claims.

3. Amendment, received on 04/09/2004, improperly amends an amendment to the original Patent claim. ALL changes to the original Patent claims should be reflected in each amendment, showing departure (or change) with respect to the original Patented claims. For example, the addition of the phrase "...within the apparatus..." which was added and underlined when the reissue was filed, is not underlined in this amendment.

4. Claim 1 is rejected as being based upon a defective reissue of Declaration under 35 U.S.C. 251 as set forth above. See 37 CFR 1.175.

The nature of the defect(s) in the Declaration is set forth in the discussion as below:

- (i) There is no statement of error.
- (ii) There is no statement that the declaration was filed without deceptive intent.
- (iii) It appears as though the declaration was signed by someone who is not listed as an inventor in the original Patent.
